Route # 2, Box 313
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Folks:

Our recent meeting at Baxter was a source of much satisfaction to me. Not only did we have the opportunity of witnessing many responses to the Lord's invitation, but we also had the fellowship of like-minded people from night to night. The Baxter congregation is to be commended for the unusual interest in those things that are right and necessary. I feel you to be a fortunate group in having Brother and Sister Eaton as your fellow-workers.

The opportunity to be in your home was especially appreciated by me. The Christian hospitality and excellent food made my visit a very enjoyable one. Let me say thank you for all of the effort which you made in having me in your home and in making the meeting a success that it was.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
